The LSB is opposed to the kidnapping of the elected President of Haiti, Jean Bertrand Aristide, and the US backed and orchestrated coup. We are further opposed to yet another racist occupation of Haiti by US forces and their allies. We support the bringing to justice of those who are committing violence and other atrocities against the Haitian people, including by coup leaders, some of whom are purported drug dealers, convicted assassins, and mass murderers.

Furthermore, We are opposed to the returning by the US government of Haitian refugees who are fleeing violence, including the violence of poverty and who are bound to face more of the same upon their return to Haiti. We are demanding assurances of the safety of President Aristide, his family and supporters. We condemn acts of violence against the people of Haiti, where as in any armed conflict, women and children bear the highest price.

Furthermore, We oppose US financial and other intervention in Venezuela whose aim is to destabilize or topple the democratically elected government of Venezuela, a country where 80% of the people live in poverty, the majority of whom are women of African and Indigenous descent, and who elected Presiden Hugo Chavez to tackle poverly and corruption.

Further resolved that:

Haitian refugees should be recognized as seeking asylum according to international law.

Motion Passed by a show of hands

APPENDIX B - Summary of Public Comments

This report on public comments has been prepared by the Secretary Pro-Tem and is attached to the minutes for general reference. Inclusion of this report is no representation from the LSB or the speakers mentioned as to its accuracy or completeness, nor is it an endorsement of any content herein.

FIRST PUBLIC COMMENT SEGMENT [29feb04lsbpt4.mp3, 8:35]

John Doe 1 [9:40]

Speakers are not required to identify themselves by name.

Rafael Renteria [10:27]

A director revote could impact who is available to serve as LSB officers.

Maynard Levinson [11:32]

"I hope that all of the board members are suitably embarrassed by what happened at the beginning." The LSB didn't have agendas, the sound system wasn't set up, people arrived up to about 45 minutes late, and there was a lot of unfamiliarity with procedures. The audience should show the proper respect and hold their comments for the proper time.

Dele [12:53]

The LSB elections demonstrate that democracy has come only to the white middle class. "It has come to North Hollywood, but it has not come to South Central" Time has been wasted on procedures. The LSB should pass a resolution condemning the imperialist mafia coup taking place in Haiti.

Lawrence Reyes [14:28]

There could be a U.S. military intervention in Haiti, and the LSB should pass a resolution on the issue. The LSB Chair and Vice Chair should consult page 15 of Robert's Rules.

Listener D [15:42]

What has happened to the African Mental Liberation Weekend, and why aren't we getting it now?

Nancy Kent [16:15]

"It's a new beginning" and a chance to break from LAB practices and start off on the right foot. Talkers and cell-phone users should leave the room. It is hoped that the LSB will find a volunteer parliamentarian.

Mari Quis [29feb04lsbpt5.mp3, 0:00]

How may the Art in Africa Network invite the LSB out to meet the community, as has been done with Eva Georgia and Armondo Gudiño?

Luis Garcia [0:55]

The LSB should pass the same resolution as the LAB to meet the broadcasting needs of recognized national minorities and to give them priority.

SECOND PUBLIC COMMENT SEGMENT [29feb04lsbpt5.mp3, 13:07]

Dr. Kwaiku Person-Lynn [13:07]

"There's a policy in place that has been totally ignored as it relates to African Mental Liberation Weekend...'Programmers accused of objectionable conduct shall be provided with fully described due process by which they can respond to accusations made against them prior to actions being taken against them by management'...If there is a due process hearing, I can clearly show, without a shadow of a doubt, that every accusation made against the program and myself are totally false, bogus, and an attempt by station management to sacrifice the program." According to Dr. Lynn, the banning of AMLW was justified by false charges and the producer's calls for due process have been totally ignored. A license challenge from an anti-black right-wing conservative group was rejected by the FCC.

THIRD PUBLIC COMMENT SEGMENT [29feb04lsb9.mp3, 12:07]

Long Beach Listener [14:00]

Please find out who is responsible for responding to programmers and see that they do so to explain the cancellation of the African Mental Liberation Weekend. The listener offered to provide the Secretary with a list of guidelines to improve meetings.

John Bachar [16:17]

The iPC is the most important issue facing KPFK. The LSB needs to provide time to hear from iPC members in depth.

Shel Plotkin [16:56]

Plotkin volunteered to serve on the iPC as a representative of the Science and Technology Collective.

Gordon Stitch [17:50]

Stitch yielded time to Novick.

Michael Novick [18:00]

You're "pushing peanuts with your nose." Time has been wasted with procedural nonsense, such as dividing motions when the support of each half is the same.

Isidra Person-Lynn

Will AMLW be put on the agenda for the next meeting or sometime soon? There has been no due process.

Learner Goude [1:39]

The iPC issue needs sufficient time. The AMLW issue could be submitted to the Program Council.

Bernie Eisenberg [3:08]

KPFK needs programming on rational thinking. The delegates voted Directors illegally.

Linda Krausen [4:24]

The iPC must move forward in a progressive way. All iPC proposals should be made available for study and review.
